All finished wood species will exhibit color changes when exposed to different light and environments. Graining differences, mineral streaks, and color variations are expected in wood cabinetry. All wood cabinets will expand and contract due to temperature, humidity and other environmental factors. Such changes are expected and are not defects; therefore not guaranteed. No warranties and representations made other than representations set forth on this statement, whether expressed or implied by law, are made in lieu of such warranties and representations. "In this event it is necessary to refer this matter to an attorney, or collection agency for collection, the buyer hereby agrees to pay any and all reasonable fees and costs charged by said attorney or collection agency."
